Subject to Change; Last Updated: 2024-01-20 13:54:20-07:00

1 Introduction

Video recordings of lectures, excluding those reserved for reviews and midterms, will be uploaded weekly to the following YouTube playlist:

<https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PL40ydqvvyXfOBtKE5ZbyvjEOffOoreeUF>.

Written or verbal typos and mistakes are inevitable in the lecture recordings. Reporting an error, once validated, earns you 0.1 extra points toward your final grade. Here is an up-to-date list of all the errors spotted so far:

This document outlines how this will work in more detail.

2 How to Participate

To participate, follow these steps:

1. Watch any one of the lecture videos.
2. If you come across any typos or mistakes, report it by submitting the form at the following URL:

<https://forms.gle/NVJ4AF2PyNDm8XTa9>.

Here are some further details:

- In the form you will be asked to provide a specifically formatted timestamped URL, together with a description of the error and a proposed correction. Your timestamped URL should for instance look like this:

<https://youtu.be/ipDVlyBibuc?t=2801>.

or like this if you reached the video through the above playlist link:

<https://youtu.be/ipDVlyBibuc?list=PL40ydqvvvYfOBtKE5ZbyvjEOfoOreeUF&t=2801>.

- To get a properly formatted timestamped URL, pause the video at the exact moment where you notice the typo, right-click on the video and select "Copy video URL at current time". A properly formatted timestamped URL is now in your clipboard and you may paste it in the appropriate field in the form.

- Corrections with inaccurate or wrongly formatted URL's will not be counted.
- While you can submit only one error per form, throughout the semester by filing out multiple forms you may submit as many errors as you can find.
- All submissions that adhere to the formatting guidelines will be immediately publicly available at the above link.
- The staff will regularly go through the submissions and evaluate them according to their validity. The errors that are validated will be added to the closed captions of the corresponding video.

3 Extra Credit

Students who contribute by identifying and reporting typos will receive 0.1 extra points at the end of the semester for each error found and validated. These points will be added to your final grade. If there are more than one submissions pointing to the same error, only the first submission will be awarded.
